

LEVON TIGRANYANTS

LEVON TIGRANYANTS was born in 1841. He graduated from the Dorpat (Tartu) University with a doctor's qualification. He started his work as a doctor in Saint Petersburg (1876), and then he worked on the same position in Yerevan (1879). In 1882 he was sent on a mission to Persia for struggle against epidemics. In 1885 due to family circumstances he left the state service. He has a rank of Councillor of State.

L. Tigranyan was elected a Mayor of Yerevan in January 1894 and voluntarily left the office in June 1895.

He was decorated by the order of Saint Stanislaus of the Third Class.