

TADEVOS TOSHYAN

Was born in 1879 in the village of Meghri in Zangezour province.

In 1907 he graduated from the Department of Agriculture of Kiev Polytechnic Institute. In 1915 he held the office of senior instructor in the Department of Agriculture and State Property Management in Yerevan and then in Kars; afterwards he was appointed agronomist of the Echmiadzin province.

In November 1917 Toshiyan was elected mayor of Yerevan and served till December 1918. He was appointed assistant to the minister during the period from February to November 1920.

T. Toshiyan was exiled by the Soviet authorities.