

MKRTICH MOUSINYANTS

In 1898 he moved to Armenia and held the office of manager at the Shustov's cognac plant.

During the World War I he managed to preserve the reserves of alcohol used in production of cognac, which brought to the First Republic of Armenia large quantities of currency.

In 1919 he was elected mayor of Yerevan and held the position until November 1920.

M. Mousinyants died in 1929.
